INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING COMMERCIAL WATERCRAFT PERSONAL PROPERTY NOTICE OF VALUE

This notice provides you with an annual opportunity to communicate with us and provide current information for accurate valuation of your vessel.

If any event took place that affected the vessel value, physical condition, or ownership, please specify what happened on the front of this notice. Please report any change of address on the front of this notice.

If you are no longer using this vessel for commercial purposes, you need to register it with the Department of Licensing and send us a copy of the Registration Certificate showing payment of the Watercraft Excise Tax. We will then close your account.

Appeals: If you disagree with this value you may appeal. To appeal, mail a written request for correction of the value to: Department of Revenue, Special Programs Division, PO Box 47477, Olympia WA 98504-7477. Your request for correction must be postmarked no later than thirty (30) days after the issuance of this notice of value.

Any ship or vessel owner disputing the value shown on this notice may request a review as is permitted any other owner that is subject to the Watercraft Excise Tax provided by Chapter 82.49 RCW, and in accordance with RCW 82.49.060. Any owner requesting a review will need to provide sales data for no fewer than three vessels that have been sold within the twelve months prior to the date shown on this notice. Such information provided needs to be for vessels that are used for the same purpose as the subject vessel, and are of similar size, hull construction and condition, along with photographs of the subject and comparable vessels. If available, a recent marine survey may be submitted instead of the comparable sales data.

- Rules For Apportionment of Value

Ships and vessels as stated in RCW 84.36.080 that are subject to assessment by the Department of Revenue shall have their value apportioned to the state of Washington in accordance with the following rules.

- Apportionable Vessel

A ship or vessel that is engaged in (a) interstate commerce; (b) foreign commerce; and/or

(c) exclusively in fishing, tendering, harvesting and/or processing seafood products on the high seas or waters under the jurisdiction of other states.

Those vessels that are NOT apportionable are taxable for 365 days. There is no exemption for repair days, or days spent out of state.

The value of each apportionable vessel shall be apportioned to this state based on the number of days or fractions of days the vessel was within this state during the preceding year when the vessel is listed. If the total number of days the vessel is within the limits of the state is less than one hundred twenty one days for the preceding calendar year, no value shall be apportioned to this state.

Days when an apportionable vessel is in the state exclusively for one or more of the following purposes shall not be considered as days within this state, if the length of time is reasonable for the purpose; (a) undergoing repair or alteration; (b) taking on or discharging cargo, passengers or supplies; or (c) serving as a tug for a vessel under (a) or (b) described above.

- Interstate or Foreign Commerce

A ship or vessel is engaged in interstate or foreign commerce when transporting persons or property from one state or territory of the United States to another, or between a state or territory of the United States and a foreign country.

- Limits of the State

“Limits of the state” shall mean Washington state’s normal boundaries abutting Canada, Oregon, and Idaho and three miles to the west of Washington’s coast line. Days when an apportionable vessel leaves this state only while navigating the high seas in order to travel between points in this state shall be considered as days within this state.
